CHURCH SPRING PICNIC!!!

Following worship services come join us on Sabbath, May 8 for a relaxing afternoon by the lake for food and fellowship. Our spring picnic will be held at the Field's Landing Park in Cherokee County. Directions will be handed out on May 8 (it's about 25 min. from Church). Our menu will be salads, sandwiches and desserts. Friends and family members are welcome to join us! Please contact Ethel Kaufman for any questions or what to bring at (770) 479-4318.

Spiritual Health

Read Galatians 5:16-23

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. -Galatians 5:22-23 (KJV)

For most of my life, I have been a competitive athlete who values physical health. Recently I have been trying to figure out how I can become healthy spiritually. Galatians 5:22-23 has helped me understand what I need to do to get in shape spiritually.

The fruit of the Spirit described in this verse represents the spiritual "muscles" that God asks us to exercise daily. For me, love is selfless, Christlike affection. Joy is a deep, abiding, inner rejoicing. Peace is tranquility in the soul. Longsuffering is patient endurance and steadfastness, even when we are provoked. Gentleness is graciousness with a warm disposition. Goodness is a willingness to live a moral life. Faith is trust in God's promises. Meekness is behaving humbly before God and others. Temperance is prayerful restraint of natural impulses.

Incorporating these into our lives is difficult. However, when we open our hearts to the Spirit, God works within us to grow these qualities and to move us toward spiritual health. Only by the power of the Holy Spirit within us can we live the life God calls us to live.

Dale G. Caldwell (New Jersey, U.S.A.)
Upper Room, December 13, 2002

PRAYER Dear Lord, help us demonstrate the fruit of the Spirit every moment of our lives.
Amen.

Which fruit of the Spirit is most often missing in my life?

SCRIPTURE READING

1 Corinthians 13 (NIV)

- 1 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.
- 2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.
- 3 If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing.
- 4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.
- 5 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.
- 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.
- 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.
- 8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.
- 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part,
- 10 but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears.
- 11 When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me.
- 12 Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.
- 13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
