THE ELECTION OF GRACE

WEEK AT A GLANCE: All are sinners and all need God's grace as given to the world through Jesus Christ. This grace comes to all—not by nationality, not by birth, and not by works of the law but by faith in Jesus, who died as the Substitute for sinners everywhere.

THAT YOU MAY KNOW

"How to Die Right and Live to Tell About It" DVD Series Continues

The DVD series entitled "How to Die Right and Live to Tell About It" continues during Prayer Meeting, Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. Taken from the website: www.alifetodiefor.com:

"You have heard the lines:

'Give your all to Jesus'

'Just surrender'

'Die to self'

'Let go and let God'

So often these come across as just platitudes — sometimes they even frustrate and madden us, in that they tell us what to do but not how to do it. This seminar DVD takes these statements out of the world of clichés and puts them into practical reality."

If you wish to preview the series you may visit the above website.

We are excited to be sharing these messages with you!

Cherokee's Betty Kossick on E-Gracenotes

On the church website home page are short devotionals from e-gracenotes, a part of The Center for Creative Ministry. Betty Kossick has been writing for this online ministry since 2006. If you are interested in reading Betty's articles, go to www.e-gracenotes and type in Betty Kossick. There are many excellent short articles in both English and Spanish.

The One in Need

Read Galatians 6:2-10*

Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Galatians 6:9 (KJV)

After a night of pounding rain and howling wind, I awoke to the shrill sound of the telephone ringing. The hurricane had left over two million Gulf Coast residents without electrical power and other necessities of life such as food, water, and shelter. Instantly each of us became either a person in need or a person who needed to help.

Ten days later I, who normally live alone, still had ten houseguests. My daily routine had been tossed aside, and I felt weariness setting in. At that point, God spoke quietly within me. Would you rather be the one in need? Imagine their weariness!

I have concluded that God uses life situations to help us examine ourselves. I had always felt I was a helpful and patient person. But this situation caused me to acknowledge that I needed to grow in my compassion and my willingness to help others. Imagining myself in another person's situation helped me to focus and redirected me to what the Bible tells us God has called us to do. After that when I felt weary, I remembered that my actions not only help others in a material way but also help others see God.

SCRIPTURE READING

John 19:13-18 (KJV)

13. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.
14. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!
15. But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.
16. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.
17. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:
18. Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.
