

SCRIPTURE READING
Matthew 8:14-17 (NIV)

- 14. When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever.
- 15. He touched her hand and the fever left her, and she got up and began to wait on him.
- 16. When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to him, and he drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick.
- 17. This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah: "He took up our infirmities and bore our diseases."

An Unexpected Gift

Read 1 Timothy 6:17-19

"Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share."-1 Timothy 6:18 (NIV)

The pavement shimmered in the August heat as I wondered grumpily why I had offered to deliver the school supplies my church had collected for needy children. Since all the volunteers at the interdenominational clearinghouse were busily distributing an unexpected gift of produce, there was nobody to help me. Well, there was one little boy. Grinning, he said, "C'mon Miss, we got a lot to unload." Indeed we did. During the many trips across the blistering parking lot, he told me his name was Jimmy, that he was eight and entering third grade.

Curious, I asked him why he was working here instead of swimming at the park. "Sometimes my Grandma and I get food here, and sometimes we help give it away. Today we're bagging potatoes!" he said proudly. What a valuable lesson his grandmother was teaching!

As I was leaving, I heard running feet behind me. "Miss!" Jimmy was shouting, "Don't you want some potatoes? We have some really nice ones today!" I smiled, thanked him, and told him I had enough for today. "You come back if you need some," he said solemnly, then turned and skipped back to the building.

Inside my car, I whispered a prayer of thanksgiving for having met Jimmy, for the cool breeze of his giving spirit that day, and for the reminder that we are all called to be generous and willing to share.
