Annual Day of Fasting

Our third annual day of fasting and prayer will take place on Friday, July 1.

We call upon all in our conference family (wherever possible) to abstain from all foods (or eat simply), and from mass media (internet, TV etc.) in order to focus our prayers for a mighty outpouring of God's Spirit on our families, churches, church leaders, cities and communities. Pray for unity and revival so that we can complete our mission speedily. Thank you for planning for this special day. Thank you and God bless your ministry!

Mark Piotrowski, GCC Prayer Ministries Coordinator

Tidal Reminder

Read Lamentations 3:22-24

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."-Hebrews 13:8 (NIV)

The back porch of a cabin we rent for holiday looks across a tidal creek, lined by colorful houses and boats of all shapes and sizes. Each morning we wake to a new view, according to the state of the tide. Sometimes the water laps at the bright, sea-grass islands and reflects the jetties and vividly painted mooring buoys. At other times the water recedes, leaving boats stranded at odd angles on the shell-spattered mud. The reflections are confined to a ribbon of water snaking down the middle of the creek.

I live in a town far from the sea. But on holiday, I am reminded of the constant change of tides, flowing in and out twice a day, altering the scenery hour by hour, varying according to the changes of the tides. Behind the changes, the moon drives the steady rhythm, reliable and unstoppable. Each day is the same, yet each day is different.

This truth causes me to think of God. How wonderful that the God we worship is unchanging, "yesterday and today and forever"! God's love is reliable and unstoppable. Yet it is also "new every morning." Each time we open our eyes to a new day, the possibilities God offers us are endless and always fresh.

Liz Howden (Cheshire, England)

Upper Room Devotional, June 21, 2011

PRAYER Creator of goodness and beauty, in each new day, encourage us by your faithfulness and delight us by the constant surprises you bring. Amen.

God has surprises in store for us every day.

RESPONSIVE READING

Justification

(from Romans 4 and 5, NIV)

[Jesus] was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand.

And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope.

And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.

You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous man, though for a good man someone might possibly dare to die.

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him!

For if, when we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

Not only is this so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.
