

SCRIPTURE READING

Joshua 1:10, 11 (NKJV)

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,
 11 "Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the Lord your God is giving you to possess.'"

Musician: Brenda McConville. Cost: $35 (includes lunch and supper and seminar book). Registration Deadline: January 30th. Space is limited. Early registration is encouraged. Register at www.registration.gccsda.com. For more info: 800-567-1844, ext 348. Revival is an absolute necessity for each laymen in finishing God's work. Don't miss this.

Though God is love and all heavenly beings adore Him, we can see that, around the heavenly throne of God, the worship anthem is not "God is love, love, love." Nor do the heavenly beings cry out, "God is good, good, good." Instead, day and night these mighty beings exclaim, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty." Though all heaven is involved in the ministry of God's love and salvation to this world, heavenly beings around the throne of God day and night praise the holiness of God. As sinless beings, they are awed by His holiness, but they don't hide in fear of it, as do fallen beings.

In all the human encounters of the divine as depicted in Scripture, one never finds a suggestion that God is frightening. What we see instead is that, in the piercing light of His holiness, human beings finally see themselves for who they really are. And that is scary. In Scripture, when people truly encounter the God of heaven, we find no hand clapping, backslapping, and lighthearted singing. Rather, there is abject personal repentance. Each one sees and admits their personal guilt and without any excuses and without reference to the faults of anyone else. How different our words, our lives, and our actions would be were we all to live with the constant sense, not only of God's presence but of His holiness, as well.
