

SCRIPTURE READING
Exodus 20:8-11 (KJV)

- 8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.
- 9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:
- 10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:
- 11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Whose Rules?

Read Deuteronomy 13:1-4

"In those days there was no king in Israel; all the people did what was right in their own eyes." — Judges 21:25 (NRSV)

One night five of us in the dorm decided to play a board game. As we started playing, it became clear that each of us had a different understanding of the rules. After two or three disagreements, we got out the rules that came with the game and followed them. It was the only chance of having a fair and successful game.

Our actions show that we are like people in the Bible. The book of Judges says that when there was no king in Israel, everyone did "what was right in their own eyes." With no written rules to follow and no one to guide them, people wandered from God. But instead of giving up on them, God sent prophets. And finally God sent Jesus to lead the people back.

At times we also wander from God's way and follow our own rules. But God does not forsake us, either. As we read and study scripture and open ourselves to the Holy Spirit, God leads us back to the "way that leads to life" (Matt. 7:14).

Gordon P. Page (Illinois)
Upper Room Devotional, February 8, 2012

PRAYER Loving God, help us to do what is right in your eyes and to be faithful to you. Amen.

Do I follow God's rules or make up my own?
