THAT YOU MAY KNOW

Vespers, TONIGHT

Adoramus (choir) and the Advent Ringers from Atlanta Adventist Academy will be at our church Feb 25 for a 6:30 vespers. The Canton Spanish SDA Church has been invited as well as the Brazilian church. There will be a meal afterward for the 28 Adoramus members and 13 Advent Ringers, as well as any members and guests who would like to fellowship together. If you will be able to help with the meal, please see Sandy Babin who is coordinating it with Mrs Graham from the Spanish church.

Special Vote Today

The Church Board is recommending the following. The Deaconesses to be added to the Communications Committee for maintaining the bulletin boards and also for Flower Committee with Sonia Guinand remaining as still leader of Flower Committee; Steve Riera to be added to the Personal Ministries committee; Yvette Reynolds to be added to Fellowship Dinner Team and Sandy Babin to be leader of Fellowship Dinner Team. A special vote will be taken today on these recommendations.

If anything, as Christians who believe that this world and the life and resources on it are gifts from God, we should be at the forefront of seeking to take care of it. If we believed that the earth is just a chance creation, the product of cold, uncaring forces, we could almost be excused in seeking to exploit it to our own ends. When, though, we understand this world as something that God created and sustains, it's hard to see how we could do anything other than be responsible stewards of it.

Our Father

Read Luke 11:2-4

"Our Father which art in heaven, allowed be thy name." - Luke 11:2 (KJV)

I have clear memories of my beloved grandmother. She came to my room each evening when I was tucked in bed to be sure I said the Lord's Prayer. I often said, "My Father in heaven." Grandma Sophie would smile and gently correct me, saying, "Our Father in heaven." But I felt that God was my Father, mine alone. When I reflect on my simple childhood error, I see a powerful truth. God is "Our Father" in heaven: my God, Grandma Sophie's God, and the God of the entire world. We live in a community of faith. Like brothers and sisters, we share one faith. God's love binds us to God in Christ and to one another. God is truly "Our Father" who gathers all of us into one family, united by God's love. I rejoice in that. Each day when I read The Upper Room, I am reminded of our Father in heaven and our worldwide family. I know that we read each day's devotion and prayer together. God has adopted each of us into the family through Jesus Christ, the Son.

John C. Holman (Minnesota)

Upper Room Devotional, December 29, 2011

PRAYER Dear God, help us to know you are our loving Father. Comfort us with the knowledge that we have a place in your heavenly home, prepared by Jesus Christ. As Jesus taught us, we pray, "Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation." Amen.*

We are part of an eternal family
