

SCRIPTURE READING
Matthew 19:16-21 (NKJV)

- 16 Now behold, one came and said to Him, "Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?"
- 17 So He said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."
- 18 He said to Him, "Which ones?" Jesus said, "'You shall not murder,' 'You shall not commit adultery,' 'You shall not steal,' 'You shall not bear false witness,'
- 19 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' "
- 20 The young man said to Him, "All these things I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?"
- 21 Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

The Bible reveals to us truths about God that we aren't going to find anywhere else. Among those truths is that He is the Creator. In fact, that's the first thing the Bible tells us about God, that He created "the heavens and the earth" (Gen. 1:1).

One of the many fascinating things about this text is that the Bible simply assumes the existence of God without trying to prove or show it. The Bible spends a great deal of time teaching us about what God is like, particularly as His character is revealed through His interaction with fallen humanity. But it spends no time trying to prove that He exists. It just assumes His existence.

Conviction about the existence of God cannot come from rational arguments alone. The Bible teaches that a person is convinced of God's existence through personal experience with Him as the Holy Spirit impresses one's heart and mind with the fact of His existence. In many cases, people may come to believe in God first; only afterward do they start to build a logical and intellectual foundation for faith in a God whom they cannot see.
