Satan's ultimate goal is to wrest for himself the allegiance that all true believers give to Christ. Before conversion, people belonged to the devil's realm; he ruled over them. Although conversion to Christ takes the believer away from the devil's dominion, it does not completely shatter the devil's power. If anything, Satan increases his efforts to destroy our faith and win us back to himself. He has a vast array of deceptive ploys; Scripture calls them "the wiles of the devil" (Eph. 6:11). In the end, though, no matter the enemy's deceptions, ploys, and wiles, he can take no one from Christ who is determined to stay faithful to the Lord
