REVIVAL: OUR GREAT NEED

KEY THOUGHT: When we respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit to know Jesus more intimately and consent to have Him fill our hearts with His love, He will break down every barrier that hinders this relationship, drawing us into an intimate relationship with Him in ways that we may not imagine are even possible.

The bottom line is that the Lord knows all things. He knows those who are His (2 Tim. 2:19) and those who are not. All we can do is, as sinners, claim His righteousness, claim His promises of forgiveness and power, and then—relying on Christ's merits—die to self and live for Him and others, knowing that in the end our only hope is in His grace. If we place our hope in ourselves, we are sure to be disappointed, one way or another.

Adult Sabbath School Lesson
Wednesday, June 26, 2013.

"God blesses the work of men's hands, that they may return to Him His portion. He gives them the sunshine and the rain; He causes vegetation to flourish; He gives health and ability to acquire means. Every blessing comes from His bountiful hand, and He desires men and women to show their gratitude by returning Him a portion in tithes and offerings—in thank offerings, in freewill offerings, in trespass offerings. They are to devote their means to His service, that His vineyard may not remain a barren waste. They are to study what the Lord would do were He in their place. . . . They are to take all difficult matters to Him in prayer. They are to reveal an unselfish interest in the building up of His work in all parts of the world."—Ellen G. White, Prophets and Kings, pp. 707, 708. Adult
